

Art for Kids, The Hague

Drawing, painting and 3D art work

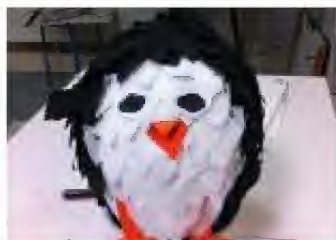

Category Archives: Late childhood activities

NeoPopRealism project

This week our lesson is inspired by NeoPopRealist artist Nadia Russ. First we practiced drawing different kinds of lines as a warm up exercise. They then drew a variety of patterns using the different kinds of ... Continue reading →

NOVEMBER 12, 2014 · 1 COMMENT

Papier Mache

Assessment was based on the following; 1. The sculpture must stand on it's own. 2. The sculpture is representative of the child's sketch 3. No cracks or holes in the ... Continue reading →

AUGUST 22, 2014 · LEAVE A COMMENT

Drawing basic shapes using charcoal

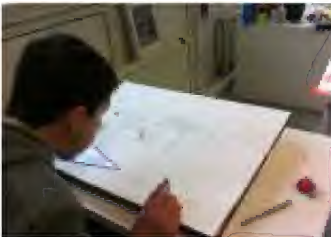

1. Everyone practiced their drawing skills by drawing basic shapes using charcoal. The children drew basic shapes creating a composition as they overlapped the shapes. Vocabulary development: overlapping, rhythm, size, balance ... Continue reading →

JUNE 8, 2014

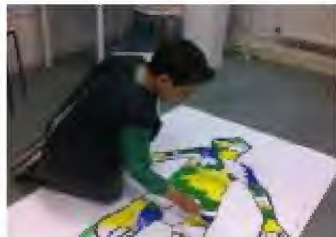

Quilling

Students worked on a project called Eye Popping Paper Curls. Students used quilling techniques to complete their compositions. US National Standards for Visual Arts Education Content Standard #1 — Understanding ... Continue reading →

MARCH 15, 2014 · LEAVE A COMMENT

Working from still-life

OCTOBER 19, 2013 · LEAVE A COMMENT

Life size figures

This week we made life size figures in action by tracing their silhouette, and then dividing up the positive space with a variety of organic shapes. They began to bring ... Continue reading →

OCTOBER 9, 2013 · LEAVE A COMMENT

Create a free website or blog at WordPress.com. The Suburbia Theme.

◎ Follow

Follow “Art for Kids, The Hague”

Build a website with WordPress.com

